Winemaker's Tasting Notes:

Medium, ruby color, typical Larkmead aromatics of sandalwood, mineral & spice with subtle roasted coffee notes, dried herbs & an intense floral element. The minerality continues on the palate with flavors of graphite, sweet cedar, bittersweet chocolate and vanillin with a core of concentrated black cherry fruit. Medium bodied with ripe fruit elegance and an expansive mid-palate texture, our 1998 Cabernet has the ripe tannin structure and acid/fruit balance to provide a decade of aging potential, yet has the charm and accessibility for early drinking.
